

ROADWAY CLOSURES

The 250th anniversary celebration of the American Revolution commemorates the historic battles of Concord and Lexington. Celebratory 250th events that are scheduled that may impact getting to or from Hanscom Field begins on Friday, April 18th through Monday, April 21st. Events will be held across the towns of Arlington, Bedford, Concord, Lexington, and Lincoln, as well as at Minuteman National Historical Park. There will be high levels of traffic in the area due to large crowds, roadway closures and detours. Please plan ahead and anticipate needing extra time to get to or from Hanscom Field.

Impacts to Hanscom Field

Saturday, April 19th will be the most impactful day for those going to or leaving from Hanscom Field. From 5:00 AM to 5:00 PM, State Route 2A and Hanscom Drive will be closed. To access Hanscom Field from I-95, please use Exit 49B, follow Bedford Road to Great Road, at the fork stay left to Concord Road, continue until the next fork then stay left to go on Old Bedford Road, take the first left onto Virginia Road then travel until you get to the rotary to access Hanscom Field.

Navigational apps will direct you around roadway closures around the airport.

Please Note

The MBTA bus Route 62/76 will run on Saturday, April 19th making its routine stops on Hanscom Drive and at the Hanscom Field Terminal.

Parking for the 250th Celebrations is not allowed at Hanscom Field.

For assistance or any questions, please email HanscomOps@massport.com